

Louisiana League for Nursing

Summer Conference
July 26, 2019

One day educational activity for nurse educators. We are happy to have back Michele Deck, MEd, BSN, RN, LCCE, FACCE. Michele will present "Creative Ways to Teach Diverse Learners: It's all about Engagement". Today's learners are diverse consumers. Our job is to engage, teach and mentor those who have different learning styles, different generational expectations, and short attention spans. How do you best teach those with diverse backgrounds and experience levels? We must adapt our teaching methods to the seven expectations of the youngest generation.

Agenda:

8:30	Registration with Light Breakfast
9:00-10:30	4 Types of Learner Engagement; Engaging methods
10:30-10:45	Break
10:45-12:00	Proven Creative, Interactive Teaching Techniques
12:00-1:00	Lunch will be provided
1:00-2:15	5 Generations in Workplace/School/Facilities
2:15-2:30	Break
2:30- 3:30	7 Things Younger Generation Learners Want from Those Who Teach and Manage Them
3:30-4:00	Evaluation and closing

Location: Auditorium at Louisiana State University at Alexandria
8100 Hwy 71 South, Alexandria, LA

Contact Hours: 5.00 Joint Provided with Nursing Continuing Education, Northwestern State University, Shreveport, LA.

Fee: $30 (Pre-registration is required by July 19)

Educational Activity may be cancelled due to low enrollment. No refunds, but a substitute may be sent in your place. To register after July 19, please call Dr. Shelton at 318-458-6657 or sheltond@suddenlink.net

Register online at: <https://www.eventbrite.com/o/louisiana-league-for-nursing-10727206466>

To mail registration, mail to: Dr. Shelton, 122 Rosemont Pl, Bossier City, LA 71112

Name: _____ Address: _____
City, State, Zip: _____ Phone: _____
Email: _____ University/Program: _____

For More Information:
Dr. Debra Shelton – sheltond@suddenlink.net
www.laleaguefornursing.org